Ashish Nangia has over 5 years of proven experience serving clients in multifarious domains including retail, supply chain and e-commerce. Prior to joining Vantage Solutions as an HCM consultant, he worked as a Business Analyst and Solutions Consultant at Sports Authority.

Ashish had a knack for solving problems when he was working at Sports Authority, focusing on end-to-end implementation. He envisions the retail industry to be completely customer centric and tried to establish a great level of customer satisfaction while working at Sports Authority. Ashish's professional experience also includes working with ebay to migrate data when they acquired GSI. He truly believes in looking at the bigger picture while connecting the dots.

Ashish completed his master's degree from Iowa State University in 2017 in Management Information Systems with specialization in Business Process Management. During his studies, he created a new business model for a retail giant. He participated in many groups and activities, including MIS club, Entrepreneur club, and NABA. Ashish is an active member of the IIBA organization, and is currently a member of the Central Iowa Chapter and the Chicagoland Chapter. Ashish completed his Bachelor's of Technology in 2011 in his home country of India, and is also recognized as a SAP certified consultant.

Ashish is originally from New Delhi, the capital city of India. He enjoys meeting new people and learning from industry leaders. He is a passionate individual who loves to spread positivity around.

A quote he completely believes and follows:

"A mentor empowers a person to see a possible future, and believe it can be obtained."
